Parents, if you are concerned about a stubborn, defiant or out of control adolescent...

The Parent Project®

Provides Concrete Solutions!

Making a difference...

The Parent Project's

goal is to change destructive adolescent behavior.

What is it?

A 10 week parent group and class designed specifically for parents of strong-willed or out-of-control adolescent children. The Parent project has proven effective in decreasing teen behavior problems. It is a national program, available in 30 states.

How does it work?

Parents and teens both attend activity-based group meetings. Parents learn how to manage teen behavior problems. Teens learn positive alternatives to destructive behavior.

Who teaches it?

Trained staff members from The Counseling Center of Wayne and Holmes Counties.

What is the program cost?

$75.00 per family, limited scholarships are available

How do I sign up?

Call Joy Stitzlein at The Counseling Center (330-264-9029) to register.

What other parents say about the Parent Project ® :

- ◆ "Thank you! It was terrific! I recommend this to everyone!"
- ◆ "With the tools from this program, everything is possible."
- ◆ "Only six weeks and very positive change in my family."
- ◆ "We thought we had tried everything. We were wrong. This program works."

Classes are limited to 20 families, pre-registration is required.

Where and when?

The next class will begin October 8, 2009. It will meet on Thursday evenings from 5:45-8:45 p.m. at the Wooster United Methodist Church, 243 N Market St. in Wooster.

Note: Classes are limited to 20 families, pre-registration is required.
