PEER REVIEW

In order to assure that Counseling Center patients receive the highest quality of care, consistent with professional standards, the organization maintains an active Peer Review committee which conducts regular case reviews, provides feedback to providers, and identifies potential problems that need attention. The committee is composed of four independently licensed mental health professionals, three of whom are elected by their peers, and one of whom is appointed by the Center's Vice President/Chief Clinical Officer, Karen Berry, Psy.D., who oversees all of the Counseling Center's Quality Assurance Activities. Serving on the committee for the year that begins July 1 will be Chairperson, Sarah Bauman, M.S.W., LISW-S, Director of Residential Services, along with Kathy Fox, Ph.D., representing the Counseling/Psychotherapy Program; Tara Willis, M.Ed., LPCC-S, representing the Specialized Children's programs; and Crystal Minks, M.S.W., LISW, representing the Emergency Services Unit.

WEB SITE VISITS

An average of 270 people a day visit the Counseling Center's web site. Check us out at www.ccwhc.org. The most visited pages are those describing the Center's services and the staff who provide them.

OUR SYMPATHIES

The Counseling Center expresses our condolences to the family of Sandy Smith, residential assistant, who passed away recently after a brief battle with cancer. Smith had been employed by the Center for nearly 5 years and was a previous participant in the Center's Leadership Academy.
