

Have you ever asked?

- What do I do when my child refuses to help around the house?
- What can I do when my child screams or curses at me?
- What can I do when my child won't even talk to me?
- What can I do when my child hits me?
- My kid is a drug user and may be addicted. What should I do?
- What if my child refuses to go to school or do school work?

The Parent Project's goal is to change destructive adolescent behavior

Join other parents and learn how to:

- Reduce family conflict
- Improve school attendance and performance
- Prevent or intervene in alcohol and drug use
- Stop violence
- Improve relationships

What is it?

A parent group and class designed specifically for parents of strong-willed or out-of-control adolescents. The Parent Project has proven effective in decreasing teen behavior problems. It is a national program available in 30 states.

How does it work?

Trained staff facilitate the ten week class. Parents sit in small groups and work together with the Parent Project manual.

Where and when?

The next class will begin October 4, 2012. It will meet on Thursday nights from 5:45 to 8:45 pm at the Wooster United Methodist Church, 243 N Market St in Wooster.

What other parents say about the Parent Project®:

- "Thank you! It was terrific! I recommend this to everyone!"
- "Only six weeks and very positive change in my family."
- "We thought we had tried everything. We were wrong. This program works."
